Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels act easily yet promptly and effectively.

Starke enjoys the distinction of possessing a feminine Nimrod who shoots a gun with much more precision than some of the gentlemen who have lately infested the woods. Miss Mary Richter, of Madison, Ga., who is visiting relatives here drove over to Lawley Tuesday afternoon with a party of friends, and on the way succeeded in bagging a sufficient number of birds to divide with her friends.

The teeth should not be forgotten. The value of good teeth cannot be overestimated. Dental work properly done before it is too late spares one a great deal of pain, and will often preserve the teeth for a life time. Long practice in dentistry, as in all professions, makes perfect. I have had the practice and can guarantee good work. Office at residence southeast of F. C. & P. depot, J. O. Haynes.

Sheriff Johns has in custody John W. Shaller, of Providence, whose reason has been debilitated by financial troubles, either real or imaginary. Mr. Shaller is at times rational, but at others becomes violent, and a few days ago attempted to kill his brother by striking him with a plow. The unfortunate man was examined by Dr. E. L. Stewart and pronounced insane, and will be kept in custody by the sheriff awaiting the orders of Judge Call.

Ward-Turner.

The event of the season in the Zif neighborhood was the marriage on February 21st of Mr. E. J. Ward, of Litesville, and Miss Mamie Turner, of Zif. Judge Wm. F. Malphurs of this city, performed the ceremony.

The groom is the oldest son of ex-Representative E. P. Ward, is well known as one of Bradford county's progressive teachers and a young man of excellent character, while his fair bride is a daughter of postmaster M. W. Turner, of Zif, and a young lady possessing the many womanly attributes that will fill to overflowing the cup of joy of the man of her choice.

Congratulations are in order and the TELEGRAPH extends them with a hearty wish for a long life of happiness.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its wait in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at the drug store of the Starke Drug Co., and John A. King, of Lake Butler.

A Cure for Rheumatism.

BEXTON, ARK.

Messrs. Lippman Bros Savannah, Ga.

Gentlemen—I had Rheumatism about two months during last winter, was confined to my room most of the time. I saw an advertisement in the Salline Courier recommending P. P. P. as a cure for Rheumatism. I bought three bottles, but before I got through with the third bottle I was cured, and have not felt the least effect of Rheumatism since. It is undoubtedly the best remedy for Rheumatism I ever tried. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public.

Yours Truly, D. M. CUNNINGHAM.

Once Known Always Your Friend.

Bronson, Fla., July 20, 1894.

Some time since your Mr. Theobald gave me a bottle of Dr. Simmons' Hepatic or Liver Cure, to try for torpid liver. I find it the best thing I ever used, and can cheerfully recommend it as a fine liver medicine.

JOHN F. JACKSON.

Florida Representative Naumberg, Kraus, Lauer & Co., New York.
